

Logo safe zone

The safe zone is the area around the SQLI logo that should be free of any visual information that could impact the legibility of the logotype. In other words, it makes sure that the SQLI is always clearly visible.

It's represented by the height of the stem of letter i in the logotype. Easy. Use it to define the surrounding margins for the material you're working with.

