

Ascenders placement

The ascenders are essentially an abbreviated version of the main logo word mark. We use it in cases where the full logo either has been well established already or where the focus should be elsewhere and the logotype would potentially distract from the subject.

